

The Obama Presidency:
Achievements, Problems, and Current Issues

Lecture for Students

2 May 2011, 5:30 p.m.

Speaker: Dr. Markus Hünemörder, LMU

Organizer: Amerika-Haus-Bibliothek, B.A.Z. Amerika-Haus

In the third year of the Obama presidency, where does the United States stand? While the Obama administration was remarkably successful in passing progressive reform legislation, the popularity of the president and his Democratic fell sharply throughout 2010, leading to partial defeat in the Congressional elections of 2010. With the Republicans in control of the House of Representatives, is “change we can believe in” still possible? This talk will examine current main issues in domestic and foreign policy, as well as political culture and American society, including the role of the so-called Tea Party. We will look at the approaching presidential election of 2012, especially possible Republican candidates. As usual, political satire and humor will help provide perspective on the serious business of politics.
